frank frazetta, burne hogarth, russ manning, russ heath and mark schultz are the modern masters of illustration, here collected in their own words under one gorgeous, wrap-around cover. together, these artists bridge almost 70 years of comics and fantasy art tied to tradition, craft, and an emphasis on the human form. frank frazetta is unquestionably the preeminent fantasy artist and science fiction painter and illustrator of the second half of the 20th century. he began his career in comics, and from there he revolutionized the paperback cover aesthetic with his paintings that graced the novels of edgar rice burroughs, robert e. howard, and other sword & sorcery and fantasy authors. in his longest and last great discussion recorded for posterity, the painter and cultural touchstone throws down the gauntlet to interviewer gary groth and a generation of adventure painter wannabes. burne hogarth is well known as the visionary illustrator of the sunday tarzan series from 1939 to 1950, and the innovative educator who founded new york's school of visual arts in 1947. his educational books dynamic anatomy, dynamic light & shade, etc. have become staples of colleges and universities all over the world. hogarth gives one of the most charged interviews by any artist in any art form over the last 30 years, passionately and decisively explicating the value of great art and the moral foundations upon which all great art rests. the classic comics illustrators is also proud to present extensive interviews with three other artists who continued the tradition of men like hogarth and frazetta: russ heath was born in new york in 1926, and his best work was on westerns, especially arizona kid and kid colt, outlaw, which stood out for their realistic artwork and details. other genres russ heath drew were love stories, science-fiction and adventure, such as mad and frontline combat for ec comics. in 1950, he joined national, where he worked on the full range of comic book features, among which were silent knight, sgt. rock, sea devils and golden gladiator. russ manning, meanwhile, created the fondly-remembered science fiction comic series magnus, robot fighter, a superhero series that stood out because of manning's excellent artwork. it was published by gold key comics and started in 1963, and manning drew it until 1968; dark horse comics is currently reprinting the series. last but not least, mark schultz (cadillacs and dinosaurs) is a man caught at the apex of his work's influence within the field and provides an altogether different perspective on great art's role in great comics, discussing his forays into hollywood and more. ...more

FATHER BROWN MYSTERIES THE INNOCENCE OF FATHER BROWN: THE COMPLETE & UNABRIDGED CLASSIC EDITION (FATHER BROWN #1)

this premium quality edition contains the complete and unabridged original classic version of "the innocence of father brown," including twelve stories featuring g.k chesterton's mystery-solving priest, printed on heavy, bright white paper in a large 6"x9" format, with page headers and a fully laminated full-color cover featuring an original design. mystery fans unfamiliar with father brown may find chesterton's stories a bit different. many of the stories don't quite fit either the standard ("whodunit?") or inverted ("howcatchem?") styles common to the mystery genre, and father brown is frequently less concerned with the apprehension of the wrongdoer than with getting him to understand, and admit, the error of his ways. with his powers of observation and attention to details, and a knowledge of crime and criminals derived in no small part from his years as a priest hearing confessions, father brown frequently finds the solution through a strictly rational reasoning process more concerned with psychological, spiritual and philosophic truths than with scientific investigation. this particular volume contains twelve of chesterton's original father brown adventures, published as individual short stories in 1910 and 1911 and first collected and published in book form under the title "the innocence of father brown" in 1911. "g.k. chesterton..." gilbert keith chesterton (1874-1936) was an english writer, lay theologian, poet, philosopher, dramatist, journalist, orator, literary critic, and biographer, best known today for his father brown mystery stories and such social commentary as "heretics," "orthodoxy," and "the everlasting man." .more
