	WOMEN IN LOVE - D H LAWRENCE (WITH NOTES)(BIOGRAPHY) (BRANGWEN FAMILY #2) women in love was published in 1920. it is a sequel to his earlier novel the rainbow (1915), and follows the continuing loves and lives of the brangwen sisters, gudrun and ursula. gudrun brangwen, an artist, pursues a destructive relationship with gerald crich, an industrialist. lawrence contrasts this pair with the love that develops between ursula and rupert birkin, an alienated intellectual who articulates many opinions associated with the author. the emotional relationships thus established are given further depth and tension by an intense psychological and physical attraction between gerald and rupert. the novel ranges over the whole of british society before the time of the first world war and eventually ends high up in the snows of thetyrolean alps. ursula's character draws on lawrence's wife frieda, and gudrun on katherine mansfield, while rupert birkin has elements of lawrence himself, and gerald crich of mansfield's husband, john middleton murry . as with most of lawrence's works, women in love caused controversy over its sexual subject matter. it also later stirred criticism for its portrayal of love, denounced as chauvinistic and centred upon the phallus by simone de beauvoir in the second sex. ...more	Readable/Downloadable
