

THE SUMMER OF US

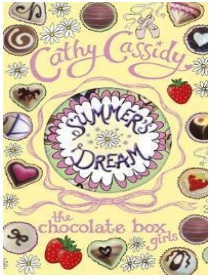

This free ebook about the summer of us by holly chamberlin gincy gannon doesn't quite fit in with the vineyard scene. raised in nowhere'sville, new hampshire, she finally escaped to boston, establishing a career at pbs and a freewheeling sex life. commitment is definitely not her thing. so why, when gincy's supposed to be reeling in lifeguards, is she getting hooked on a single dad? life is good for danielle leers. she's got a close-knit family, a killer wardrobe, and a job that keeps her in manicures and massages. now that she's set her sights on settling down, her good grooming will attract great husband material. which should mean a well-heeled jewish professional. not a townie fisherman. blueblood clare wellman doesn't worry about keeping up appearances--her boyfriend, winchester carrington, iii, is in charge of that. actually, he's in charge of pretty much everything...and never lets clare forget it, especially after proposing. an engagement ring shouldn't feel like an albatross--and this summer may be clare's last chance to see what could be--before what is ties her down for good. this summer, three city-smart girlfriends are about to take the plunge into love, lust, and letting it all hang out, vineyard-style. but whatever happens, long after the tan lines have faded, they'll still have each other. .more
